

INVITATION TO ATTEND JOINT EDUCATION STAKEHOLDERS
NATIONAL CONSULTATIVE CONFERENCE ON EDUCATION AND 2019

The JESAC (Joint Education Stakeholders Action Coalition) is the voluntary coalition of 19 critical education unions and associations that span the entire gamut of education sector, from primary to tertiary, with membership profile of over 24 million voters. Launched in 2010, the initiative coordinated by Exam Ethics Marshals International, is an outstanding success story in demonstrating that education stakeholders have the brain power, organization, extensive national network, skills, capacity and population to determine the outcomes of elections in favour of education-friendly candidates.

Please recall that in 2010 all Presidential Candidates for 2011 general elections including H.E. President Muhammadu Buhari (as the then presidential candidate of Congress for Progressive Change) and H.E. Alhaji Atiku Abubakar (as the then presidential candidate of Action Congress) personally addressed JESAC-in-session on their plans for education in Abuja on 28th October, 2010. H.E. President Goodluck Jonathan, (then presidential candidate of PDP) also addressed JESAC through his Education Minister.

Mobilization strategies (through the 5-Minutes Teacher Initiative), strategic education transformation plans, the Education Performance Audit Instrument and perspectives of critical stakeholders on education reforms will be presented at this conference. Candidates for the 2011 election will also present their records and manifestos for the the transformation of the education sector.
