BACKGROUND

Public Servants in Ministries, Parastatals, Institutions and Local Governments have responsibility for generating revenue for fulfillment of government obligations especially in this season of resource scarcity and declining statutory allocations. Fulfilling this responsibility requires a high performance public service that can operationalize the concept of Government as a Business. This can only be achieved by aligning public service recruitment, confirmation and promotion examination processes with contemporary best practices and protocols. It is an extraordinary success story with over 500 participants from 189 MDAs and LGAs in the four streams held in 2017.

PARTICIPANTS

Executive and Directorate Cadre Officials involved in and/or responsible for administration of recruitment, confirmation and promotion examinations in MDAs, LGAs, Institutions and including: CEOs, Human Resource and Personnel Directors; Registrars/Deputy Registrars of Tertiary Institutions; Deputy Vice Chancellors, Deputy Provosts and Deputy Rectors (Administration); Principal Officers of Labour Unions; All other interested stakeholders.
