

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON GOOD GOVERNANCE AND ANTI-CORRUPTION MANAGEMENT INFORMATION SYSTEM

THEME:

UNDERSTANDING NATIONAL AND INTERNATIONAL ANTI-CORRUPTION CONVENTIONS, TREATIES, PROTOCOLS, LAWS, REGULATIONS AND AGENCIES TO ENHANCE COMPLIANCE AND AVOID CONSEQUENCES OF NON-COMPLIANCE.

DATE: 22-26 October, 2018 (Arrival: 22) VENUE: Nugget Hotel, Utako, Abuja.

BACKGROUND

The global war against corruption is underpinned by a complex matrix and multiplicity of international anti-corruption conventions, treaties and protocols.

National anti-corruption laws, regulations and agencies are established in compliance with these global conventions. It is imperative for public and private sector organizations and their executives responsible for formulation and implementation of policies, programmes, projects and transactions to decode and understand national laws and international conventions to enhance compliance and avoid consequences of non-compliance. The Good Governance and Anti-Corruption Management Information System Programme was launched in Nigeria in 2004 with support and facilitation of Federal Anti-Corruption Agencies to provide executives with one-stop, cost-effective comprehensive anti-corruption body of knowledge for enhanced compliance. The programme is big success story with 32 editions organized since the launch.
